HaH Laredo PP Red

Laredo PP Red is a homozygous polled son by HaH Delila PP Red, who was one of the top sellers of the European Classic Sales 2016 and goes back to the outstanding West-Port Rubens-Marigold VG-88 family. Laredo convinces with a very complete profile with good production, extremely high longevity, a balanced conformation with udder transmission suitable for AMS, as well as very easy births and good udder health. Laredo also has the coveted kappa-casein variant BB.
